

Doak House Museum

Greeneville, TN

423-636-8554 or 800-729-0256 ext. 5251

Student program: <http://www2.tusculum.edu/doakhouse/educational-programs/>

Visiting: <http://www2.tusculum.edu/doakhouse/visitor-information/>

The Doak House Museum exhibits and preserves the original Doak House and select artifacts of Rev. Samuel Witherspoon Doak, his wife Sarah McEwen Doak and the Doak family. At the Doak House the public is engaged through a number of field trip opportunities, adult classes and workshops, and free or low-cost public events.

- Hours: Monday-Friday, 9:00 am to 5:00pm
(Call for schedule -Special events, weekends, and evenings as announced or by appointment. Closed Tusculum College holidays)
- Cost President Andrew Johnson Museum and Library, Free, Research fees apply to archive. Doak House Museum, Guided Tours $5 per person, group rates available. Field Trips $4 or $5 per student, depending on program.
- Lunch: Two restaurants and one coffee/snack stand within walking distance. Picnic tables are available at Doak House. Other eating areas available on campus.
- Shopping: Museum gift shop with low-cost items for children at the Doak House, cash, check, credit cards accepted.
- Chaperones: Teachers & aides and parents are welcome on field trips, but are not required.