

Famous Tennesseans

State Standards: K.30, 1.43, 2.32

First Grade

Standard: 1.43

- Nancy Ward or Nanye-hi was leader of the Cherokee.
- She was called a "beloved woman."
- She helped make peace between the Cherokee and white settlers.

Nancy Ward

- John Sevier was a leader during the Revolutionary War.
- He was the first governor of Tennessee.

John Sevier

- Sam Houston was governor of Tennessee.
- He helped Texas win its freedom from Mexico.

Sam Houston

- Sam Davis was a young man who fought in the Civil War.
- He refused to betray his friends.

Sam Davis

- Casey Jones was a train engineer.
- He was a hero who died saving lives during a train wreck.

Casey Jones

- Austin Peay was elected governor of Tennessee three times.

Austin Peay

- Anne Dallas Dudley helped women get the right to vote.

Anne Dallas Dudley

- Cordell Hull helped start the United Nations.
- He won the Nobel Peace Prize.

Cordell Hull

- Cornelia Fort flew airplanes for the United States during World War II.
- She was a WASP (Women's Air Service Pilot)

Cornelia Fort

- Diane Nash helped to lead the Civil Rights Movement.
- She was a Freedom Rider.

Diane Nash

