

Frank H. McClung Museum

1327 Circle Park Drive,

University of Tennessee

The McClung Museum offers staff or docent led learning experiences in the sciences, social sciences, and visual art in eight exhibition areas. Students examine authentic objects for information, use primary sources, and hands-on activities are offered in most of the exhibits. For more information and curriculum objectives, see website mcclungmuseum.utk.edu/education/ or ask for free brochure (also available in pdf format online). The programs are:

Archaeology and Native Peoples of Tennessee

Geology and Fossils of Tennessee, including plate tectonics

Ancient Egypt

Art Around the World in the Decorative Experience, including Ancient China

The Civil War in Knoxville: The Battle of Fort Sanders

Human Origins: Fossils and Artifacts

Ecology of Freshwater Mussels

Buddhism and the Arts of Japan (fall 2012)

Splendid Treasures of the Turkomen Tribes of Central Asia (spring 2013)

Outreach program in Ancient Egypt, Archaeology & Native Peoples, and Civil War in Knoxville available for certain grades.

To schedule a program, call Debbie Woodiel, Museum Educator, at 865-974-2144 or email woodield@utk.edu

Cost: Free at the museum; outreach $2 per student, students on fee waivers free

When: Monday-Friday, 9-4

Lunch: Picnicking permitted on Circle Park Drive (benches, no tables)

Gift shop available with teacher permission

Chaperones: one chaperon per 15 students.